ORDER

Before the Court is a petition alleging violations of Defendant's supervised release. (Doc. No. 90). The Court held a hearing on the petition over a period of three days, May 18-19, 2022 and June 2, 2022.

For the reasons stated on the record at the hearing, the Court found that the Government proved Violations 1, 2, and 5 by a preponderance of the evidence but not Violation 4. After release from the residential reentry center the defendant shall have no supervised release to follow.

Defendant's conditions of supervised release, including the order of no in-person contact with Markesha Lindsley, remain unchanged except for the following: Defendant is no longer subject to location monitoring. Additionally, Defendant shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. Defendant shall pay all or part of the costs if the United States Probation Office determines that he has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
